

YOUR PENNY IS HARD AT WORK

School's Out, Work Goes On

Holiday breaks are the best time for crews to make significant progress on referendum-approved construction projects. Crews actively worked on several schools, including Boynton Beach High School, Citrus Cove Elementary, Egret Lake Elementary, S.D. Spady Elementary and Seminole Trails Elementary. Here is a highlight of the improvements.

Watch Video

School Spotlight: Verde Elementary

Parents, students and the community will be proud of the new Verde Elementary in Boca Raton. The school is being built from the ground up and the progress is impressive. It opens in August 2020.

Watch Video

School Spotlight: Acreage Pines

Having opened 28 years ago, Acreage Pines Elementary in Loxahatchee is in need of a facelift. Over Winter Break, crews painted, replaced water fountains, LED lights and added new chairs and desks. More than $7 million is being invested in the school's renovations.

Watch Video

How to build schools in Broward? Look to Palm Beach.

A recent op-ed by the Sun-Sentinel praised the School District of Palm Beach County for its oversight and execution of the funds raised by the 2016 Referendum.

SunSentinel

Read More

School Spotlight: Royal Palm Beach High School

We are just getting started with work at Royal Palm Beach High School in Royal Palm Beach. The school recently received nine semis worth of furniture. More than $18 million is being spent to renovate the school.

Watch Video

FINANCIAL OVERSIGHT

These sales tax proceeds can only be used for school repairs, renovations, classroom technology, IT infrastructure, school buses and support vehicles. An Independent Referendum Oversight Committee (IROC) of citizens and experts.

DID YOU KNOW?

SECURITY

$ 30,727,500

The Referendum Project list includes more than $30 million in facility renewal and security projects to ensure our campuses are safe.

TECHNOLOGY

$ 133,880,000

More than $133 million to upgrade District-wide technology infrastructure as well as a major investment in classroom technology to enhance teaching and learning.

Classrooms:	$ 100,080,000
Infrastructure:	$ 11,000,000
Network:	$ 11,800,000
Servers:	$ 3,000,000
Phone System:	$ 6,000,000
Wireless:	$ 2,000,000

TRANSPORTATION

$ 102,976,000

$90 million has been invested in our transportation fleet, with more than 915 school buses. An additional $12 million will provide the District with necessary support vehicles.

CONSTRUCTION

$ 60,000,000

$30 million has been allocated to the modernization of the District Transportation facilities. Additionally, $20 million in construction costs have been approved for the remodel of Roosevelt Full Service Center and the West Tech campus.

ROOSEVELT FULL SERVICE CTR:	$ 10,000,000
TRANSPORTATION - NORTH	$ 12,500,000
TRANSPORTATION - SOUTH	$ 12,500,000
TRANSPORTATION - WEST CENTRAL	$ 15,000,000
WEST TECH CAMPUS:	$ 10,000,000

